Retrofuturism

Tall and lean with a “wholly magnetic stage presence” to quote Music Connection Magazine, Los Angeles rocker Denoven has a special way with her vocals, lead and background, when it comes to original, authentic 80’s rock music. Denoven Rock’s debut, self-produced album, Retrofuturism has 10 songs she arranged with catchy hooks, clever melodies and compelling chord changes. With a powerful delivery of passionate lyrics in her rock range, spiced with a few emotionally placed ultra high notes, this kind of intoxicating singing knocks you off your feet. Lay that on top of commanding and tight rhythm sections on most tracks featuring Pat Kelley and Mike Miller on guitar with spirituous synth work by
